Project 2: Analysing network vulnerabilities with Python

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 14 Days

This project is designed to demonstrate your learning from the previous courses you have successfully completed as part of the Information Security Bootcamp. This project will test your hands-on skills using various tools and best practices that are necessary for an Information Security Professional.

Course Outline: